

Welcome to El Tesoro de Tamarindo, a luxury gated community found in the hills of Tamarindo. With the beach at its feet, El Tesoro de Tamarindo offers a beach community lifestyle with all the amenities one would expect from an area know as “The Gold Coast” of Costa Rica.

Located in the Province of Guanacaste on the Pacific North Coast, Playa Tamarindo is known for some of the best coastal climate in the world. Only one hour from Liberia International Airport, El Tesoro is a convenient destination for foreign travelers.

El Tesoro has direct beach access and is a short walk to town and the many fine restaurants and shops that give the town its personality!

Blessed with magnificent ocean views is just the beginning. The completed infrastructure, underground utilities and state of the art water treatment facility comprise an environmentally friendly development. Uncommon care was given in the creation of a low density living environment with self imposed height restrictions. All of the properties are legally registered assuring investment security.

Tamarindo's El Tesoro is a treasure to the senses! We invite you to come and see why.
